Trip Overview

The Everest Base Camp Trek is a world-famous trek to Mount Everest, the tallest mountain in the world at 8848 meters above sea level. The trail follows the footsteps of Tenzing Norgay Sherpa and Edmund Hillary, passing numerous Sherpa valleys before reaching the base camp. The trek passes through Sagarmatha National Park, home to several 8000-meter peaks. The journey includes monasteries, chhortens, mani walls, and the glacial moraine trail in the upper part. Explore Treks offers a package that includes logistics, transportation, accommodation, and a professional climbing guide at reasonable prices. Trekkers find the alpine setting blissful and spiritually soothing, and accommodation is essential to avoid altitude sickness. The best seasons for the Everest Base Camp Trek are March to May and September to November.

The Everest Base Camp Trek is a popular Nepali trekking adventure, offering stunning views of the Himalayan mountains. Starting in Lukla, the trail takes 12-14 days and passes famous places like Namche Bazaar, Tengboche Monastery, Dingboche, and Gorak Shep. Acclimatization is essential to avoid altitude sickness, and permits are required for entry to Sagarmatha National Park and Everest treks. Explore Treks offers a package with logistics, transportation, accommodation, and a professional climbing guide at reasonable prices. The Everest Base Camp trek is known for its challenging terrain, including steep ascents and descents, as well as unpredictable weather conditions. However, the reward of reaching Everest Base Camp and witnessing the majestic Mount Everest up close makes it all worth it. It is a once-in-a-lifetime experience that attracts adventurers from all over the world.

⇔ Walking

Our trail passes through a pine forest and we continue our walk on the trail that goes north up the Benkar valley. We cross Dudh Koshi River and pass Chumoa and Monjo villages before reaching the entrance of the Everest National Park. Then after crossing a suspension bridge, we pass Jorsale village and walk alongside of the Dudh Koshi and Bhote Koshi rivers. We ascend on a steep trail and reach Namche Bazaar which is probably the biggest town in the Everest region. Overnight in Namche Bazaar. MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 3 Namche Bazaar (acclimatization) 4 hours Guest house

Today we'll tour Namche Bazaar, which is the primary town of the Everest or Khumbu region and has government offices, ATMs, internet cafes, shops, restaurants, and a colorful market. We can hike-up to Sagarmatha National Park and enjoy the sunrise over the Himalayas including Mt. Everest, Lhotse, Nuptse, Ama Dablam, Thamserku, Kongde and so on. If we are interested in a day hike, we can trek to Khumjung village. Today we also visit the Hillary School and a monastery which houses a yeti scalp! Overnight in Namche Bazzar. MEALS:

The trek to Phunki is an easy walk. From here we ascend towards Tengboche village which houses the very famous Tengboche monastery which is the biggest monastery of the Everest region. It is located within the Sagarmatha National Park, which is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The monastery is blessed with panoramic views of the Himalayas, including Mt. Everest, Nuptse, Lhotse, Ama Dablam and Thamserku. The Tengboche Monastery opens at 3:00 pm, so if we reach there by 3 o'clock we can observe a Buddhist religious ceremony. Overnight in Tengboche. MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Our trail descends and passes through lush forests of birch, conifer and rhododendron trees. While trekking, we can admire good views of Mt. Everest, Lhotse, and Ama Dablam. We walk downhill to Debuche and cross the Imja River to reach Pangboche. We choose the upper Pangboche trail and admire the Himalayan vista and the Pangboche Monastery. We continue our walk to the Imja Valley and Lobuche River before ascending to Dingboche. It is a picturesque village with beautiful barley, potato and buckwheat fields complete with grazing animals dotted along those fields. MEALS: Breakfast,

Day 6 Dingboche (acclimatization day) 5 hours Guest house

■ Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

4410 m

Time to acclimatize yourself to the altitude. You can either explore Dingboche on your own or book one of our optional hikes to Chhukung (4,750m) or Nangkartshang Peak (5,083m). MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 7 Dingboche to Lobuche (4940 m/16,207 ft): 4 km 5 hours Guest house

① 5 Hrs

■ Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

We ascend to the steep terminal moraine of the Khumbu Glacier. The trail passes through boulder-strewn slopes as we ascend Chupki Lhara which is a ridge that provides spectacular mountain views. The top of the ridge is filled with prayer flags and stones which are memorial shrines for climbers who lost their lives on Mt. Everest. As the trail drops to the Khumbu Glacier moraine, we find ourselves facing several great peaks including Khumbutse, Lingtren, Pumori and Mahalangur Himal. As we are crossing Khumbu Glacier we can also see Mt. Nuptse. Overnight in Lobuche. MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 8 Lobuche to Gorak Shep (5170 m/16,961 ft), visit Everest 6 hours Guest house

The trek to Everest Base Camp is not very difficult. However, we ascend and descend mostly on a glacier path. There is also a lot of meandering on rough terrains. As we reach the base camp, we enjoy the incredible melt patterns and admire the gently rounded ice towers on the upper part of the Khumbu glacier. The Everest Base Camp is stunningly beautiful. We can enjoy amazing views of Nuptse, Khumbuste and Pumori mountains from the base camp. After soaking in the beauty, we walk back towards Gorak Shep where we spend the night. Overnight in Gorak Shep. MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

We wake up early for the walk up to Kala Patthar. It is dark outside with cold temperature and most likely chilly winds. We walk on a fairly steep trail at a comfortable pace. As we are climbing up the hill we can see Lingtren, Khumbutse, and Changtse mountains. The view from the summit is outstanding. We can see the world's tallest mountain Everest along other mighty Himalayan peaks. After spending some time at the summit of Kala Patthar, we walk back to Gorak Shep which is relatively easier than hiking up to Kala Patthar. Trekkers who visit the Everest Base Camp today will have an early breakfast as the hike up to the Everest base camp takes longer than the hike to Kala Patthar. After returning to Gorak Shep, the group will have lunch together. After lunch we descend to Pheriche to spend the night. Overnight in Pheriche. MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner
